HURT IN A RUNAWAY.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ivers and Miss Wall the victims.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ivers and Miss Wall were the victims of an exciting runaway last night. They were driving north on Sixth Street when the horses suddenly became unmanageable and dashed off on the dead run. Nearing the corner of First Street the frightened animals ran into a tree, resulting in the overturning of the carriage and the violent throwing out of all three occupants. Mr. Ivers was badly bruised about the head and shoulders, while Mrs. Ivers and Miss Wall were also hurt, although not so badly. They are now getting along nicely.

INTO THE TOMB.

Remains of Mrs. Brastow Tenderly and Sadly Craved Thence.

The services over the remains of Mrs. George P. Brastow, held at the family residence yesterday afternoon, were of a beautiful and impressive nature. They were short, consisting of the closing and opening prayer, musical selections beautifully rendered by the Alfred Bag quartet, and a short but most impressive sermon by Bishop Whitney.

The casket and room were massed with beautiful floral tributes from the sorrowing friends, which afterwards blanketed the mound at the cemetery, making a beautiful picture. The casket was borne by 12 pallbearers: Messrs. Spencer Clawson, R. W. Young, L. D. Young, T. Hare, Paul Held, H. A. Young, Jack Mitchell, J. A. Young, Jesse Little, Will Clark, Dr. A. C. Young and Winfield Young, and was followed by a procession of the relatives and friends, who marched the short distance to the spot where the interment took place. Here the quiet strains, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and the dedicatory prayer being offered by Bishop O. F. Whitney, the mortal remains of the beautiful and beloved woman were consigned to the earth.

R. F. RASH LAID TO REST.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Benjamin F. Rash were conducted yesterday afternoon at the late residence of the deceased on Sixth East street, and were attended by a large number of friends of the family. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. Rev. T. W. Pinkerton officiated. Interment was at Mount Olivet cemetery.

REMAINS OF LYDIA EAKINS.

Last evening the remains of Mrs. Lydia Eakins, who died the 28th, were shipped to Evanston, and were accompanied by her husband and other relatives.

A Worm Killer.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Puxico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have tried twin worms, who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried every thing to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two worms returned, and from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, of them measuring twelve inches; the other child is only a few days from worms. It is a most excellent medicine. White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms, it helps the child to gain weight, wards off sickness, etc. at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store."
